N4C PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

I would first like to say thank you to everyone who put on a program at Springbrook. For those of you who missed it, you missed a great time. The weather was great till Sunday when it rained, but that was ok, we were all going home any way.

To bring you up to date on what happened in the board meeting:

We now have a Class B Black and White class for those of you who shoot B&W and don't make your own prints.

We have also changed the Slide Essay to allow them to be on slides or CD Rom.

The board has also approved setting up an N4C web site. Larry Crabb has an unused domain we can use for a trial period to see if we want to continue with a web site.

A great time was held by all. On a sad note we will miss Margrieta Delle from our Springbrook outings. I remember the first time I went to Springbrook and went on her bird walk at 6 in the morning and how she was out leading everyone through the woods picking out different birds and telling us about them. She will be missed.

If any of your clubs are having problems and would like some guidance on how to fix the issue, or if you have an issue with the N4C, please let me know. N4C is here to help you with your problems. The reason for this is N4C can only be a strong organization if all our clubs are happy and working well within their club and our organization. We have lots of experience in our clubs and should be able to resolve any issues that may pop up.

Our next big event is the N4C Convention in Fergus Falls MN. It sounds like it is going to be one of best eve, so everyone, please make plans now to attend.

Well, that is it for now. This is the last newsletter till August, so have a great summer and take lots of pictures for next year's contest. I am going to try to get more taken this summer so I can get back into the contest game.

Gerlach said, "You can still like your photo. Just because someone has judged your photo and deemed it unworthy does not mean that you cannot continue to enjoy it. Do not let anyone destroy the beauty you find in a photo; after all, it is an extension of you. Every photo has something good in it."

—Minot CC CAMERADERIE

Website for N4C

Larry Crabb of the Sioux City Camera Club has volunteered to create a website for N4C using an empty space he currently has. If this temporary domain goes over, N4C can find and purchase its own domain.

E-Mail Publisher

Gene Schwope was congratulated on the success of the E-Mail Bulletin. Francis Kingsbury said, "This is probably the greatest improvement the Council has ever experienced, because from day one, communication has always been a problem.

—Minutes SpringBrook Board Meeting

Cochran N4C History

Kingsburys went to Omaha in April to help Bob and Liz Cochran figure out what to do with 50 years accumulation of photo equipment. There was 28 Leica bodies and most all the Leica lenses, and that is just the beginning. Other than identification and suggestions for disposal I did not feel that I helped in any tangible way.

But among the items we returned home with were two files of correspondence from the pre-organization of N4C which will be helpful in recording that history. The other thing we brought home was a box of several years of N4C bulletins. they are all bound by the year which was his passion. He bound everything and it was all in the house!!!!

EDITOR'S NOTES:-

*Thanks to all the camera clubs who sent their club newsletters and shared information with other in the N4C area.

*Thanks to the judging clubs who sent their N4C judging results to the bulletin on time - such information should be mailed by the 26th of the month.

*The Bulletin is published monthly except for June and July.

*The News Bulletin is composed at the end of the month after the contest results have been received. The bulletin is dated to correspond with the contests. For example, this "May" issue actually comes out in June. Otherwise the results would not appear until August.

*Thanks for the greetings sent to me from Springbrook - I know I missed a good thing by not being there!

Suggestions Regarding Judging Clubs

- If you enter a category, your club must be willing to judge that category at some point in time.
- A notice will be put in the N4C Bulletin asking clubs to judge.
- There are outside judges out there — they do not have to be experts.
- We need to educate the clubs a little bit better.
- Invite club members to judgments to observe and learn how to judge.

N4C Secretary Pat Schwoppe

The Importance of a Club Bulletin

Lots of planning goes into running a camera club smoothly, programs, competitions, outside speakers, field trips, attracting new members, trying to keep current members on your roll...there is one thing that keeps this package held together to prevent the loose ends flapping in the breeze...and that "string" is the camera club's monthly publication (news-letter).

It binds all the important activities of the club into an easily consulted reminder for all the members. It brings together within the framework of a few printed / electronic pages the necessary information on all your clubs functions and activities to make up the life of a well-managed organization,

It serves as a newsletter, listing items of interest about the club and its members. In short, it's an almost indispensable means of keeping everyone posted on what's cooking and who's dishing it out.

Every club, large or small, needs such a periodical. Even if available funds allow for only a single sheet, it's still important. Important because it can be kept and referred to throughout the month, important because it can be filed and used as an informal club history over the years, and important too, because it can serve as a publicity medium and source of information to prospective members.

ANNUAL CONVENTION
NORTH CENTRAL COUNCIL OF CAMERA CLUBS

SEPTEMBER 5-6-7, 2003

Bigwood Event Center, Fergus Falls, Minnesota
Hosted by Heart O' Lakes Camera Club

HOLCC is looking forward to seeing you. A great convention is planned --- great tours, education and speakers. It will be a good time for you to meet new friends and get re-acquainted with old friends.

Plus September in Minnesota is beautiful --- the sumac will be bright red, the prairies will be speckled with yellow flowers, the weather will be mild and the snow is still a few months away. Otter Tail County offers great photo opportunities including lakes, rivers, wildlife, woods, prairies, and scenic historic sites. Otter Tail County and Fergus Falls are in western Minnesota on the divide of eastern hardwood forests and western prairies. There are over 1000 lakes in Otter Tail County! Plan on spending an extra day before or after the convention.

This year's convention is at the new Bigwood Event Center. The Bigwood Center was completed in 2001 and has become the convention center for western Minnesota. The attached Best Western Hotel was completely remodeled at the same time. Each guestroom, the pool area, the exercise room, the lounge and restaurant were all updated. The rooms are light and airy. Both the hotel and the event center have gone out of their way to welcome us! The convention rate of $69 per room is guaranteed through August 15th. Call the hotel at 800-293-2216 and ask for the N4C rate.

Saturday banquet: The highlight, of course, will be the awards ceremony. But the fellowship, a great meal and a slide presentation from Roland Jordahl of Pelican Rapids, Minnesota will be top notch. Roland, a field editor for Birds-n-Blooms, has a long career in teaching photography as well as winning many awards. His presentation is titled "My Approach to Nature & Wildlife Photography". The banquet entrée will be your choice of roast prime rib, marinated chicken breast, broiled walleye . . . all served with salad, roll, baked potato and glazed carrots. Vegetable primavera will also be available.

Sunday morning: A buffet brunch of scrambled eggs, bacon, oven-browned potatoes, pastries, assorted fruit, and coffee is planned. All for only $10. We will have a special presentation just before the business meeting and election. Plan on attending this convention finale.

We look forward to seeing you in September!
